

Agent Partnership Guide

If you are a licensed agent thinking about your next move — or a partner referring clients into Toronto and the GTA — this guide sets out how working with RE/MAX Quantum Realty works in practice.

01 Why RE/MAX Quantum

A globally recognised brand with local market depth and a brokerage small enough that you deal with the Broker of Record directly, not a queue.

02 Systems that win listings

The Quantum Home Selling System for sellers and the Dream Home Navigator for buyers are documented, repeatable processes — not lead lists.

03 Tools and marketing

Listing marketing, lead-generation support and a digital presence that positions you as the local expert from the first week.

04 Referral partnerships

Have a client moving into or out of the GTA? Refer with confidence and stay updated through closing. Referral terms are documented brokerage to brokerage.

Referral arrangements are governed by your brokerage agreement and by TRESA. Any actual referral is papered between brokerages before a client is contacted.

05 Mentorship and growth

Whether you are newly registered or scaling a team, you get direct access to mentorship, accountability and a plan built around where you actually want to be.

06 Let's talk

Splits, support and structure are best discussed directly and in confidence. Call or text 437-987-1925, or email connect@jatindua.com.

NEXT STEPS

- ☐ Book a confidential conversation
- ☐ Review the systems and the support
- ☐ Discuss splits and structure
- ☐ Check the RECO transfer process and timing

Researching registration or a brokerage transfer? The reference pages at jatindua.com/agents/ are sourced to RECO and the education providers, and they say so when RECO publishes no rule.

For registered real estate professionals. Referral and employment arrangements are governed by TRESA, by RECO registration requirements and by the written agreement between brokerages. Jatin Dua, Broker of Record, RE/MAX Quantum Realty Inc., Brokerage.
